

Please don't take away New Jersey's Do Not Call Program. It's nice not having to call screen anymore. When the phone rings I know it's a family member or a friend. I don't want pushy salespeople calling me and making me feel rude when I tell them I'm not interested in their great product. I have a stressful job and really want to keep my home relaxing.